Business Advisory

Information in business is the key to being able to make the right decisions at the right time. As a full service taxation, accounting, auditing and advisory firm, Pitcher Partners has the capability and expertise to meet your ever changing requirements and ensure your future business success.

Achieving Peace of Mind

Our long and proud reputation for quality, independence and personal service is based on genuine care for and commitment to our clients, and are the qualities that distinguish us in our market.

Our commitment to serving your interests means we are actively involved with your business affairs to provide proactive advice and commercially relevant recommendations. We work closely with you as a partner in your business to drive performance, service compliance needs and maximise opportunities to help achieve your business and personal goals.

By easing the burden of complex financial, taxation, audit and business issues, we allow you the time to focus on managing and growing your business. Our technical expertise and experience sets your mind at ease.

Advisory Services

Pitcher Partners' Business Advisory provides a 'one stop shop' for all your accounting, audit and taxation needs. With a thorough understanding of issues affecting private and family businesses, we will assist you in making decisions.

The systems and process we help put in place allow you to cost effectively:

- Receive information about your business that is relevant to your decision making and commercial in nature
- Proactively identify problems that need to be managed or planned for
- Have an understanding of your business and objectives in order to develop forward plans to steer a clear course for the future of your business.

“ The real value of Pitcher Partners is as an advisor. The compliance, accuracy and integrity of my accounts is a given. It is however the commercial advice that we truly value. Pitcher Partners are there to guide us and assist us in making such strategic decisions...Quite simply, Pitchers are there when we need them. I could not ask for anything more.”

Outsourced Financial Controller Services

It is critical to have accurate and timely financial information on which to make strategic decisions while your organisation is growing rapidly. This is also a time where there can be working capital constraints and businesses need to prioritise investment without compromising the integrity of the financial information. One of the ways to ensure both is to outsource financial oversight of your operations to Pitcher Partners.

Pitcher Partners have taken on the role of outsourced financial controller for several of our clients in a range of industries. In this role, we act as a bridge between the internal bookkeeper/accountant and the owners, through the preparation, analysis and interpretation of regular financial reports and the provision of regular pro-active strategic business and taxation advice.

Most importantly, by engaging Pitcher Partners as outsourced financial controller, the business gains access to a team of highly trained and experienced advisers to bring additional rigour to the business owner's strategic thinking.

Tax Advisory Services

Pitcher Partners has one of the most experienced taxation consulting and advisory teams servicing the middle market in Australia. Pitcher Partners has a strong relationship with the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) and consult with the ATO on a number of technical matters. We also take part in various liaison groups, including the national tax liaison group.

We generally take the role of the advisor, and through our vast experience and dealings with many clients, we can bring a wealth of practical and commercial experience in our advisory role. Our large team of experienced professionals can manage any taxation issue regardless of size or complexity. The spread of tax services we provide includes advising on income taxes, capital gains taxes, international taxes, transaction taxes and employment taxes.
